CITATION

Information obtained by the Physical Therapy Board of California has revealed actions taken by you which violate sections of the law regulating the practice of physical therapy. A Citation is hereby issued to you in accordance with Section 125.9 of the Business and Professions Code for the violations described below.

FIRST CAUSE FOR CITATION

The information obtained confirmed that you practiced physical therapy without a valid California license during the period on or about June 30, 2002 through June 23, 2003 at The Physical Therapy Clinics, Inc. and was compensated for said services. On July 3, 2003, a letter was mailed to you notifying you that your expired license had come to the attention of the PTBC, Consumer Protection Services (CPS). The admission of your negligence in your letter dated August 4, 2003 and the letter received from your employer from August 13, 2003, confirmed that you were performing physical therapy from June 30, 2002 through June 23, 2003 without a valid license.

Based on these facts, you were in violation of:

1. Section 2630 of the B&P

It is unlawful for any person or persons to practice or offer to practice, physical therapy in this state for compensation received or expected, or to hold himself or herself out as a physical therapist, unless at the time of so doing the person holds a valid, unexpired, and unrevoked license issued under this chapter.
